FROM COUNTY HIST. ANALYSIS FROM BIOG. SKETCHES: Re good fields of Calif

Did Rhodes Tipton number among those in that Van Buren contingent known to have gone to Calif. in spring of 1850? Partial list included Zachariah Walker, Thos. Haney. J.D. Israel, Joseph A. Keck and his bro. Henry, Newton Calhoun, Thos. Anson, Thos. Christy, Jesse T. Stoops, Samuel Perrine, Jacob Eich and George L. Moore. The company selected 39 yr old Zachariah Walker as capt and they set out overland by ox teams. Many unnamed argonauts d. of cholera enroute; however no lives were lost in the Ind attack on the Humboldt R. in Nev. Terr, altho the capt lost a lock of hair to one of their bullets. Finally reaching, Calif, the argonauts apparently fanned out in search of their own bonanza. 1850 Calif census shows G.L. Moore, age 24, in Calavaras Co, Calavara twp, with a J.B. Tippeth, age 38, in the same place. (There was also a Geo. Moore in Yuba Co; here also was E.H. Tipton, Elezar Tipton, & ____ Tiplen.) Several of the Perrine name mined on Sacramento River. Of course some Van Buren men went to Calif as early as 1849 as did Wesley Walker who went to Monterey via Panama and nearly starved(p.54)

Some of the above named returend to Ia sooner than others. Z. Walker, Haney and Israel came back in 1851, as did Henry Keck but he went back to Calif the next year only to stay until 1855. Haney went back in 1853 to try mining again for 11 more months. Joseph A. Keck & Newton Calhoun came back to Ia in 1852, Joseph via water where again many died of cholera on the ship near the West Indies, as indeed many had died in 1850 on the overland trip going West. Several did not come back to Ia until the spring of 1853, among these Anson who returned via New York City, and Christy, Stoops, Perrine. Eich and Moore stayed with mining until 1854.

Did Rhodes Tipton go on this expedition after farming out his children to different families in 1850, and not return until 1853 when he married Rebecca Moore in Sept? In any case he was not listed in the 1852 census of Ia as head of household, altho Rebecca Moore, now widowed, was.

birth in 1827, others, however, put it in 1825 or 1826. In later life she and her family adopted or accepted 1825 as the true date, and on March 22, 1925 she observed the hundredth anniversary of her birth, and she died _____ 1925. If she was born as late as 1827, or even 1826, there was time for Sarah to precede Margaret and to follow the child who died within a few days of its birth, assuming the child to have been that of Mary Forbes.

REBECCA FORBES

(B) Rebecca Forbes, daughter of John Forbes and Mary Ager, was brought by her parents to America in the family party headed by her Grandfather Ager in 1817, when she was a little less than two years old. She was taken by her parents when a child to Ohio, where she married Thomas Moore, date not given, but probably in the early or middle years of the 1830-40 decade. She with her mother, her husband Moore and three or four children born in Ohio, formed part of a company of seventeen persons who moved from Carroll County, Ohio, to Van Buren County, Iowa, in 1843.

Thomas Moore and Rebecca Forbes had five children all born in Ohio. My data of this family are meager, and I have not the birth dates of any of them but they probably ran as follows: Mary Ann, John, Alexander, Ellen and Margaret. Thomas Moore, the father, died a few years after their arrival in Iowa, and Mrs. Rebecca (Forbes) Ager married a man named Tipton, probably in Van Buren County, Iowa. His christian name is written Rhoads which I also find written Rhodes by some of his descendants. James A. Ager called him Moses Tipton, but this is probably an error or lapse of memory.

The name of John Moore of New Hagerstown, Ohio, has already been seen in connection with the shipwreck of the "Lord Nelson," and I wish to observe that he was not related to the Thomas Moore who married Rebecca Forbes as far as known.

Rebecca (Forbes) Moore Tipton was a pioneer settler of Iowa and Kansas. The date of her settlement in Kansas is stated to have been 1852 1853/54 (letter of Ann Ager, January __, 1895), but her son James A. Ager puts it in 1856 (see his letter of _____ to the writer). Both statements are probably from memory only, but maybe accepted as approximately correct. The following account of their removal to and early life in Kansas is based upon the narrative of James A. Ager, nephew of, an d s/o ANN Forbes w/o Dr John Forbes ?

He says that his Aunt Rebecca moved to Kansas in 1856, after her second marriage, to Moses Tipton, that he had two sons who with his auntÕs three younger children went out there by ox teams and horses. They drove cattle through, stopped at Indian Mission, a reservation for the Shawnee Indians, where there were schools and churches, eighteen miles from the place then known as Westport Landing on the Missouri River now Kansas City, Mo. They remained at the Mission several months where the children attended the schools with the Indian children. Tipton and family and a lot of stock he had got through trading with the Indians, went to a claim in Linn County twelve miles west of the Missouri line. Sometime in the fall of 1858 the able Indians went up the Kaw River hunting winter meat, antelope and deer in plenty. After they were away Ellen slipped away with her two ponies and rode for the Missouri River miles away. Crossing the line she kept on the Missouri side for nearly four days and at the end of the ninth day found her mother Rebecca and sister Maggie Margaret and brother Alexander. They kept her trail for a long time but no Indians followed.

In 1859, Mr. Ager says, his Aunt Rebecca came to Iowa and sold the Tom Moore homestead of 80 acres, located within one-half mile of a school, his mother Ann Forbes Ager buying 20 acres of the land, and his Uncle Robert Forbes (half-brother of Rebecca) for $10.00 an acre. Thomas Moore had built a good house on this farm and when Rebecca moved to Kansas she left her son John Moore on the place. After Rebecca had left it the house burned down.

John Moore, son of Rebecca, just mentioned, had moved to Kansas, and had been there just a few days when Ellen came home. Ellen married Bob Mitchell, with red hair and beard in 1852. They fitted out a team, came to Iowa and stayed a year. She was afraid of the Shawnees, never spoke of them as Indians.

Mr. Ager was in Coffey County in 1900, called at the old Moore home where his cousin John Moore had died in the 1890s, and saw Thomas MooreÕs wife who pointed out the Alexander Moore claim. Alexander Moore had a claim on land, but was killed in the Civil War. See his name. His mother completed this claim.

Mr. Tipton was killed in 1864 in what was known as the Price Raid. General Price, with a division of Confederate troop undertook to enter upon Kansas soil. The governor of Kansas getting word of his movements ordered out all the militia. Federal troops were also sent. The first stand was made at Independence, Missouri, the Missouri River, whence the Confederates fled to Lone Jack, a small town on Blue Creek. From this place the main body of PriceÕs army retreated towards Kansas. After a few hours the Federal troops turned west after the main army followed Blue Creek Valley, fighting again at Blue Church. Price got over into Kansas and meeting General PleasantsÕ federal troops and Kansas militia was driven back into Missouri and followed to the Arkansas state line. There was a hot battle at Mound City also one further north where the town of Pleasanton in Linn county named after General Pleasants is now located. Mr. Rhodes Tipton, it appears, was not an enlisted man in either State militia or the Federal forces but was in the fighting voluntarily or as an independent. He was buried where he fell at the head-waters of Blue Creek, Missouri, a few miles south of Wyandotte. Wyandotte was one of the municipalities that merged to form the present city of Kansas City, Kansas.

Mrs. Rebecca (Forbes) Moore Tipton died in Linn County, Kansas, November 18, 1896.

Thomas Moore and Rebecca Forbes had five children born in Ohio. I have no specific dates of any of them. They were:

* (1) Mary Ann Moore, married John Shaffer.
* (2) John Moore, married Sarah Orr.
* (3) Ellen Moore, married (1) Robert Mitchell and (2) a Mr. Vaughan.
* (4) Alexander Moore.
* (5) Margaret Moore. Of all these children

(1) Mary Ann Moore married John Shaffer. James A. Ager says that the family moved ton Oregon soon after the Civil War. Her nephew John J. Mitchell gives a list of her children as follows: Rebecca, Thomas, James, Sirenis, Ellen, Ulysses and George Shaffer. He stated that Rebecca Shaffer married one David Phillips and lived at one time at Cabool, Missouri. An inquiry of the Cabool post office brought the reply that these people were unknown to them. No other data of this family.

(2) John Moore, son of Rebecca (Forbes) Moore, married Sarah Orr, probably in Van Buren county, Iowa, about 1856. He moved to Kansas about 1858, and was with the Kansas Militia in the Civil War and with his regiment joined forces with the Federal troops under General Pleasanton in driving

General Price and Confederate troops off the soil of Kansas.

John Moore has been described a short man with long body and short legs, large red beard, and red hair. He was a very successful farmer in Coffey county, Kansas, and was considered wealthy. He died suddenly of heart disease about 1898-9. I am unable to give any details of his family except that he had a son Thomas A. Moore, and one daughter, name not stated, both residents of Gridley, Kansas, and one daughter, Mrs. Ella Pennock, living at Burlington, Kansas.

(3) Ellen Moore, daughter of Thomas Moore and Rebecca Forbes, was born at _____, married Robert Mitchell, date not stated. He was born in (County) Armagh, Ireland in 1832, and died in Coffey County, Kansas, in April, 1874. They had four children, all born in Coffey or Linn county, Kansas. (See the letter of John J. Mitchell of April 19, 1931).

Children of Ellen Moore and Robert Mitchell:

(i) Thomas Oscar Mitchell was born June 6, 1864, married Augusta Hepner in 1897. They live at Burlington, Coffey county, Kansas, and their children are (a) Earl; (b) Pearl; (c) Jesse; (d) Christ (Christopher, Christian); (e) Mabel; (f) Leonard; (g) Flossie and (h) Ivan Mitchell.

(ii) John James Mitchell was born in Coffey county, Kansas, September 1, 1866. He has never married.

(iii) Robert Freeman Mitchell was born in Linn or Coffey Co., Kansas, May 15, 1870, married Callie Sanders at Burlington, Kansas. Their children are (a) Ethel; (b) Ernest; (c) Grace; (d) Golda; (e) Mabel; (f) Nina; (g) Robert and (h) Opal Mitchell.
They live at Long Beach, California.

(iv) Martha Ellen Mitchell, born in Linn or Coffey County, Kansas, March, 1872, married T. L. Jackson at Gridley, Kansas, in 1890. They live at Fort Morgan, Colorado, and have four children,- (a) Hazel; (b) Ralph; (c) Elva and (d) Ethel Jackson.

Mrs. Ellen (Moore) Mitchell married (2) James R. Vaughan, about 1880, and they had one child:

(v) Kate Elizabeth Vaughan was born at Strawn, Kansas, May 17, 1881, married C. Lingenfelter, February 7, 1900, at Burlington, Kansas. He was born March 9, 1877, at Linia, Ohio. They live at Gridley, Coffey County, Kansas, where they had four children, namely:Ñ

(a) Pearl Lingenfelter, born January 19, 1901, died July 20, 1902.

(b) Ernest Lingenfelter, born September 30, 1903.

(c) Elsie Lingenfelter, born December 11, 1905, married George Sander, December 19, 1923, at Gridley, Kansas. They live at Gridley and have one child, (a) Max Leon Sander.

(d) Ray Lingenfelter, born May 9, 1908.

(4) Alexander Moore, son of Rebecca Moore, never married. He enlisted in Company G of the Fifth Regiment of Kansas Volunteer Cavalry, October 11, 1861, was promoted to Corporal and was killed while on picket duty at Helena, Arkansas, April 3, 1863. The Adjutant General of Kansas reports him as Òkilled in actionÓ. Alexander Moore took up a claim of government land before he enlisted as a soldier. The land is located in Coffey County, Kansas, not far from the town of Gridley. I am informed that after his death his mother Rebecca as next of kin completed the necessary steps to perfect title and was granted a patent for the land. I am not sure whether Alexander Moore or his sister Ellen was the elder.

(5) Margaret Moore, daughter of Thomas and Rebecca (Forbes) Moore, was born in Ohio, and was three or four years old when the family moved to Iowa. James A. Ager, her cousin, is my authority that she moved to Kansas with her mother and died ther in 1857 or 1858, aged 17 years. He also says that she was married, but did not remember any names.

Three Children of Rhoads (or Rhodes) Tipton and Rebecca Forbes Moore Tipton:

(1) Emma Tipton, daughter of Rhoads (or Rhodes) Tipton and Rebecca Forbes, was born at LaCygne, Kansas, July 6, 1854, and was married at LaCygne in October 1870, to Freeman Gillet, who was born February 11, 1848 in Delaware Co., Ohio. They had severn children doubtless all in Coffey County, Kansas, though their birthplaces are not given in all instances, Of their childrenÑ

(i) Wilson Gillet was born October 29, 1872 at LaCygne, Kansas, married Maggie Manon at Burlington, Kansas. They live at Gridley, Kansas, and have four children,- (a) Frances; (b) Chloe; (c) Louis and (d) Gilbert Gillet.

(ii) Edward Gillet was born August, 1874, at Burlington, Kansas, unmarried, and lives at Burlington, Kansas.

(iii) Woods Gillet was born November, 1876, at Burlington, Kansas, married Fannie Bender at Burlington, Kansas.

(iv) Frank Gillet, born October, 1878, died at Burlington, Kansas, date not stated.

(v) Mable S. Gillet married Clyde McEnterfer at Burlington, Kansas. Their children are, (a) Hazel Tersel; (b) Bernice Staford; (c) Vera Kious, and Juanita McEnterfer. The second names of the three daughters first named, are probably their married names, but nothing is mentioned of their marriages. Mrs Mable McEnterfer lives at Emporia, Kansas.

(vi) John F. Gillet was born May 23, 1887, at Burlington, Kansas, married Myrtle Niver at Burlington, Kansas. He lives at Burlington, Kansas, and they have one child, (a) Melvin Gillet.

(vii) Ella Gillet was born February 22, 1891 at Burlington, Kansas, and died there in January, 1921. She married Chan Swibold in March, 1909, at Burlington, Kansas, and left one child, (a) Thelma Swibold.

(2) Sarah Katherine Tipton, daughter of Rhoads Tipton and Rebecca Forbes, was born at Kansas City, Mo., one account says at Lawrence, Kansas, on April 15, 1856, died at Anthony, Kansas, April 13, 1919. She married William Harding at LaCygne, Kansas, date not stated, but probably 1875-6. They had two children at LaCygne, Kansas, Jesse Rhodes Harding and Clyde James Harding.

(i) Jesse Rhodes Harding was born March 5, 1877, married Elma McCollam, at Bash City, Kansas, March 25, 1903. They had _____ children: (a) Wanda Rachel Harding, born April 15, 1904, married Henry Paul Wemken, June 18, 1923. They have two children, (1st) Alvin Paul Wemken, born July 5, 1924, and (2d) Marvin Arnold Wemken, born November 9, 1928, and they live at 7835 Forest Drive Preserve, Chicago, Illinois.

(ii) Clyde Rhodes Harding was born July 6, 1907, married February 29, 1929, name of wife not given. They live at Ventura California.

(iii) Roland, Jesse Harding was born September 26, 1912, was unmarried and lived at Ventura, California.

(iv) Thelma Marca Harding, born December 1, 1913.

(v) Wayne William Harding, born July 29, 1916.

(i) Jesse Rhodes Harding lives at Anthony, Kansas. His middle name is obviously for his Grandfather Tipton which I find written Rhoads and Rhodes.

(ii) Clyde James Harding, son of William Harding and SarahTipton, was born August 16, 1881, married Lena W. McCollam, October 7, 1903, at Kincaid, Kansas. They had one child, (a) Clyde James Harding, Jr., born June 28, 1910, died April 1, 1919. Clyde James Harding lives at Manchester, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harding separated when their children were quite small, and he has not been known to his family.

(3) Edward Tipton, son of Rhoads Tipton and Rebecca Forbes, was born in Linn County, Kansas, April 4, 1860, died at Gridley, Kansas, November 23, 1929. He married Jennie Combs, July 2, 1885, at Gridley, Kansas. She was born June 28, 1864 in Oregon. They had seven children. Of all their children,Ñ

(i) Emma Tipton, born August 4, 1886, at Gridley, Kansas, died at Farlinsville, Linn Co., Kansas, November 17, 1905, married July 2, 1903 at Burlington, Kansas, Christopher Fahrny. They had one child , (a) Emma Elizabeth Fahrny, died in infancy.

(ii) Jacob Tipton, born at Gridley, Kansas, June 13, 1888, unmarried and lives at Gridley, Kansas. Grounds keeper at golf course - Emporia; d. 1967 100

(iii) Elizabeth Tipton, born at Gridley, Kansas, February 14, 1890, married Fred Ackerman, April 21, 1911, in Oklahoma. They have two children, (a) Walter Ackerman and (b) Gerald Ackerman, and live at Ottawa, Kansas.

(iv) Nelson Tipton, born February 23, 1892, at Gridley, Kansas, married Montra Jackson, August 25, 1920, at Burlington, Kansas. They have two children, (a) Nelson Tipton and (b) Jackie Tipton, and live at Kembro, Kansas.

(v) Walter Tipton, born December 30, 1894 at Gridley, Kansas, married Gladys McCormick, August 27, 1913, at Ottawa, Kansas. They have three children, - (a) Genevieve, (b) Lawrence and (c) Francis Tipton, and live at Gridley, Kansas.

(vi) Ruth Tipton was born at Mound City, Kansas, February 6, year not stated, but obviously about 1896. She married Joe Birk at Burlington, Kansas, in 1913, and they had four children, (a) Harold, (b) Wanda, (c) Rex, (d) Edward, (e) Dorothy and (f)
Paul Birk. They live at Burlington, Kansas.

(vii) Carrie Tipton was born at Gridley, Kansas, March 2, 1899, married December 23, 1920, Perry Madison Johnson, at Burlington, Kansas. They have five children, (a) Perry Madison, Jr., (b) Francis, (c) Darline, (d) Kenneth, and (e) Leonard
Johnson. They live at Gridley, Kansas.

JOHN FORBIS, SON OF JOHN AND MARY (AGER) FORBES (OR FORBIS) AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

(C) John, son of John and Mary (Ager) Forbes always spelled his name Forbis and the family name was always pronounced in two syllables, whether written Forbes or Forbis. In this sketch his own manner of writing his name will be followed.

John Forbis married Jane Goff, August 13, 1861, probably in Van Buren County, Iowa. About the close of the Civil War they moved to Linn County, Kansas, where his sister Rebecca was among the earliest settlers.

John Forbis and Jane Goff had the following named children:

* (1) Mary Belle Forbis, born July 16, 1862, in Van Buren Co. Iowa.

(2) Josephine R. Forbis, born November 7, 1864, in Van Buren Co., Iowa, died August 27, 1867 in Linn Co., Kansas.

* (3) John Alexander Forbis, born November 3, 1866 in Linn Co., Kansas.

(4) Martha Ellen Forbis, born July 18, 1869 in Linn Co., Kansas, died August 2, 1869.

(1) Mary Belle Forbis, oldest daughter of John Forbes, born July 16, 1862, was married March 16, 1879, in Linn Co., Kansas to John Robert Gaines, who was born at Nashville, Tennessee, December 15, 1847, and died at Chandler, Oklahoma, March 28, 1918. They had five children born at LaCygne, Linn County, Kansas.

1855 K.T. contains no promising MOORE, MORE males.
line 22 p. 53 Dist. 1 shows a JOHN MOREHEAD 40 of IOWA with wife + 5 children all of Iowa plus George W. MOORE, a minor, living as a family. There is an ALONZO W. MOORE, 30 of PA. who is a printer - elsewhere in Dist. 1. There were several MOORE from Indiana, + one Ind. agent was ELI MOORE from N.J.

In District #5 (incl. Linn, Franklin, Miami Co.) is Henry Younger 40, farmer, from MO.
O.C. Brown, wife + 5 children, from N.Y. prob OLIVER, old John Brown's son
A couple of young male OLIVER 21 farmers from MO. (Wm + Jarrett Tipton mar. Oliver girls)

OBSERVATIONS:
1. Counties were not formed or named until late 1855.
2. K.T. was divided into 17 districts
3. District 1 included parts of what is now Douglas, Wyandotte, and Johnson counties.
4. The pop. in 1855 was widely scattered, even into western K.T.
5. Most settlers appeared to be farmers, altho Dist. 1 had a fair share of ministers, printers, physicians, etc.
6. District 1, in size (while smaller than the other 16 (except for Dist #2)) was still considerable in area. See print-out for description.
7. Ages given to nearest multiple of ten.

[Martha J.] Jane Tipton first married a Cannedy, (then John Rice). This is probably B.J. Kennedy, as dau Rebecca F. age 4 d. 1866 d/o B.J. & M.J. Kennedy + buried next to C.B. Tipton, Stanton, Miami Co.

1855 K.T. censuses

Analysis:

Red bracketed names are Josiah Miller's marks
13 appear in larger red bracket w 3 Tiptons
9 of 13 appear on page 20 Babcock's 1855 Voter Reg.
12 of 13 " " pgs. 24-36 " " Gen'l Reg.
NOTE: Voter Reg. appears to be gleaned in order from Gen'l Reg.
8 of 13 appear to be Northerners
12 of 13 are farmers, or from farming families
Most are young
In 1860, none appear in Doug Co.
In 1860, 3 are in Lykins Co, 1 in Linn Co, + 8 possibly in Arap Co (Colo) K

Summary:
All lived in same dist #1, Jan-Feb same area in 1855, & still here at time Miller took subscriptions to Fr-St Soc, 1855.
This may not be Doug Co at Palmyra as Dr. Hulls p. 58 is here.
This may be an unsettled "settlement" as all move on/off/in by 1860. a camp of transients??

Thomas Tipton

MRS. ELIZABETH TIPTON.

FRANKLIN Co., OH.

CAPTAIN THOMAS TIPTON

was born in Frederick county, Maryland, January, 1792. His father, Sylvester Tipton, was a teacher by profession, and lived in Jefferson county, Virginia, near Harper's Ferry, but at the time of the birth of the subject of our notice, he was temporarily residing in Frederick county, Maryland. Both his paternal and maternal ancestors were of Scotch-Irish extraction, and were worthy descendants of that sterling race of Highlanders whose representative was the famous John Knox, of the Reformation. Sylvester Tipton was a man of very limited means, but had a fair education, and, better than all else, possessed a good name. He was small in stature, but had a good constitution, and lived to a ripe old age, dying at the age of ninety years. His wife was a woman of more than ordinary strength of character. Her maiden name was Mary Starks, a niece of General Starks, of Revolutionary fame. She was tall and dignified in appearance, and being unusually intelligent, occupied a conspicuous place in the communities where she resided. Such were the parents of Thomas Tipton, who was ten years old when they settled in Chillicothe, Ross county. There he obtained his education, in such schools as the times and place afforded. It may be a matter of some interest to the young people of to-day to note, in this connection, what were the facilities for education, and what the qualifications expected of school teachers in those primitive times. The school-house was built of unhewed logs; the floor was made of puncheons, as were the most uncomfortable seats, which were supported, when not on wooden legs, by the ends being passed through between the unchinked logs. The qualifications of the teacher were in harmony with the school-house and other appliances. The certificate stated that the person therein named was "qualified to teach spelling, reading, writing, and elphering, excluding fractions." At the age of fourteen, young Tipton closed his school days, at which time he could spell most of the words in Webster's spelling book, and write his name, as will be seen by reference to his autograph, which was written at that time. He was united in marriage, December 6, 1813, by Asa Shepard, a justice of the peace, to Miss Elizabeth Tomlinson, of Chillicothe, a woman of heroic fortitude which, it is said, never gave way amid all the hardships and privations of their pioneer experience. Her beneficence was limited only by her ability, and the poor and destitute who were the special objects of her care and attention, regarded her with reverential respect and gratitude. Mr. and Mrs. Tipton began their married life in Franklin county, where they purchased, from time to time, one thousand acres of land, and brought the same under cultivation. To build up a home of this sort, from such a forest, with poverty on one hand, distance from market on the other, and malaria everywhere, gives some idea of Captain Tipton and his good wife's energy of character, courage, and determination.

During the war of 1812, Captain Tipton was called into the military service of his country, and responded by at once raising a company, and was with General Harrison at Fort Defiance at the time of Hull's surrender. Captain Tipton, or "Uncle Tommy," as he was familiarly called by his friends and neighbors, possessed a hopeful, buoyant nature, and a kind and benevolent disposition; he would often, at great inconvenience to himself, help those less fortunate than himself, who could render no return but kindly good will and gratitude. He was an ardent friend, and absolutely had no enemies. The young approached him as a father, the aged sought his counsel as a friend in whose motives and judgment they had the utmost confidence. His character was one to be held in pleasant remembrance by all who enjoyed an intimate acquaintance with him, on account of his quiet, unobtrusive manner, and the healthful moral influence he exerted. Perhaps nothing more conclusively proves the pure and upright character of the man than the respect and filial affection of his children for him. While his life was always strictly moral and upright, he was over fifty years of age before he made a profession of religion. In October, 1841, he was called to witness the wonderful consolation of religion in the triumphant death of his daughter, Mary, then the wife of Elijah Chenoweth, jr. This was the first time that death had ever visited his own family circle, and it made a deep impression on his mind. His daughter, shortly before her death, exacted a promise from both father and husband that their names should be enrolled on the church book in place of her own. Shortly after this event Mr. Tipton called his family together, on a Sunday morning, and opened the family devotion with singing two verses of the hymn, beginning:

"And must this body die,
This well-wrought frame decay?"

After which his wife offered up one of those soul-stirring petitions for which she had long been noted in the praying circles of the neighborhood. In the evening of the same day he offered, in the presence of his family, his first prayer—at least his first audible one. The family altar thus established was continued the remainder of their lives, and they enjoyed the consolation of often hearing each of their sons conduct the family devotion. Captain Tipton was a member of the Methodist church, as are all of his children, save one, who is, at this time, a member of no church.

In politics, he was a Republican, and his sons are adherents of the same party. He served as county commissioner of Franklin county for the term of two years—but he was not an aspirant for office, and once declined a nomination for State representative.

He died, of a malarial fever, the thirteenth day of September, 1865, and his wife on the fifth of February of the same year.

Pleasant Ridge farm, known as the "Tipton farm," is on the west side of Darby creek, two miles north of Harrisburg, in Pleasant township, Franklin county, and is now owned by J. H. Chenoweth. The old cabin has been demolished, but the associations connected with it remain in the memory of the children, who, though long since grown to man's estate, speak with peculiar tenderness of the old home, and with the most affectionate veneration of the father and mother who built it in the woods, protected it from savage violence, and brightened it with love and kindly feeling; regarded no trial or sacrifice too great, or labor too severe, to raise their children to a condition better than their own.

Captain Tipton was the father of eleven children: Samuel S., who married Miss Lydia Gantz, is a farmer and stock dealer, and lives in Kansas. Frances married John Taylor, who is also a Kansas farmer; John S. married Miss Tabitha Stump. He resides in Kansas, where he is engaged in farming and the manufacture of agricultural implements. Jonathan married Miss Rebecca Shattuck. He lives in Franklin county, Ohio, and is a farmer. William A., now deceased, married Miss Julia Wilcox. Richard H., married Miss Minerva Buckles, and resides in Darbyville, Pickaway county, Ohio. He is a physician and surgeon of thirty-four years' experience, and is a graduate of Jefferson college, Philadelphia. Dr. Tipton was surgeon of the Ninetieth regiment Ohio volunteer infantry, in the war of the Rebellion, serving with credit for three years. Mary, now deceased, was the wife of Elijah Chenoweth, jr.; Sarah is the wife of George Stump, a farmer living in Kansas; Thomas C. married Miss Miranda Loomis, and is a resident of Williamsport, Pickaway county, Ohio. He is a physician and surgeon of many years' practice. A biography of Dr. Tipton is given elsewhere in this book. Nelson F. married a Miss Elder, of Illinois, who died, leaving him with one child—a daughter. He married, for his second wife, Miss Hayes, of Harrisburg, Ohio. She died, leaving a son as a result of this union. His present wife was a Miss Morgan. He is a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, and a member of the Southern Kansas conference, and is at present stationed at Melvern, Kansas. Hiram C. married Miss Mary Shattuck, and is a farmer of Franklin county, Ohio.

Dear Ms. Dodd:

I find no evidence of Rhodes Tipton serving during the Civil War, either in a Kansas state militia or volunteer regiment. A man, age 58, probably would have been excused from military service.

Rather than being killed by bushwhackers, I would suspect Mr. Tipton died of natural causes. In 1861, age 58 would be considered a ripe old age.

probably age 52 in 1861.

JOHN BROWN IN LINN COUNTY

In the fall of 1858, Old John Brown appeared upon the scene in Linn County. He had been invited into the county by Augustus Wattles to assist in fighting the Pro-slavery men. Mr. Wattles had known the old man in Douglas county.

Mr. Wattles introduced Brown to his friends and others as "Shubel Morgan," and it was by that name that Brown was generally known while he was operating against slaveholders and other Pro-slavery men, with Linn County as his base of operations. Only a few of his immediate friends knew that it was Old John Brown. His personal safety required that he should conceal his identity and oftentimes his whereabouts.

While in Linn County, Brown usually made his headquarters at Mr. Wattle's house (an old stone house two miles north of Mound City); here as elsewhere was followed by a few men on whom he could depend.

On the 20th of December, Brown's men in two parties, one under his own command, and the other under command of J. K. Kagi, went into Missouri to liberate slaves. Brown's party liberated ten slaves and returned. Kagi's party liberated one slave and killed the owner, a German who could neither understand nor speak English.

While these eleven slaves were secreted in an old cabin, John Brown, in the Wattles' house, wrote his famous "Parallels," dating them at Trading Post for the purpose of shielding from suspicion his friends were assisting him to secrete the fugitives.

Trading Post, Kansas, January 3, 1859

Gentlemen: You will greatly oblige a humble friend by allowing the use of your columns while I briefly state two parallels in my poor way.

Not a year ago, eleven quiet citizens of this neighborhood, viz, William Robertson, William Colpetzer, Amos Hall, Austin Hall, John Campbell, Asa Snyder, Thomas Stillwell, William Hairgrove, Asa Hairgrove, Patrick Ross, and B. L. Reed, were gathered up from their work and their homes, by an armed force, under one Hamilton, and without trial or opportunity to speak in their own defense, were formed in line and all but one shot, five killed and five wounded, one fell unharmed, pretending to be dead. All were left for dead. The only crime charged against them was that of being Free State men. Now I inquire what action has ever since this occurrence in May last been taken by either the President of the United States, the Governor of Kansas, or any of their tools, or by any Pro-slavery or Administration man, to ferret out and punish the perpetrators of this crime?

Now for the parallel. On Sunday, December 19, a negro man, called "Jim," came over to the Osage settlement from Missouri, and stated that he, together with his wife, two children, and another negro man, was to be sold within a day or two, and begged for help to get away. On Monday, the following night, two small parties were made up to go to Missouri and forcibly liberate the five slaves, together with other slaves. One of these companies I assumed to direct. We preceeded to the place, surrounded the buildings, liberated the slaves, and also took certain property, supposed to belong to the estate.

We, however, learned before leaving that a portion of the articles belonged to a man living on the plantation as a tenant, and who was supposed to have an interest in the estate. We promptly returned to him all we had taken. We then went to another plantation, where we found five more slaves, took some property and two white men. We moved all slowly away in the Territory for some distance, and they sent the white men back, telling them to follow us as soon as they chose to do so.

The other company freed one female slave, took some property and, and as I am informed, killed one white man, the master, who fought against the liberation.

Now for the comparison. Eleven persons are forcibly restored to their natural and inalienable rights, with one man killed, and "all hell is stirred beneath." It is currently reported that the Governor of Missouri has made a requisition on the Governor of Kansas for all such as were engaged in the last named "dreadful outrage." The Marshal of Kansas is said to be collecting a posse of Missouri (not Kansas) men, at West Point, in Missouri, a little town about ten miles distant, to enforce the laws. All Pro-slavery, conservative Free-State, and dough-faced men are filled with horror. Consider the two cases, and the action of the Administration party.

Respectfully
(signed) John Brown

Company notoriously incompetent & field officers shaped it up. Camped 10 mi S of Ft. Scott- near odl battle ground of Drywood. Drilled til Mar '62 and on to Carthage to disband large guerrilla company there. To Apr 10 rgt threshed and ground wheat and sent flour to Ft. Scott post. Took prisoners - stragglers from Battle of Pea Ridge. To Springfield April 12, '62 to Rolla. Attacked by Tex. Rangers near Jacksonport Jl. 6, '62, Ark at Black River. Lost 1 man drowned, 2 severely wounded, and 2 prisoners. Arr Helena via White River and skirmished daily with rebel cavalry, captured guerrilla bands and horses Dec. 62. Lt. Col W. A. Jenkins (not same as C.R. Jennison) against RR. Rgt. moved toward White River for expedition against Little Rock. High water - could not cross. Rain and snow. Back to Helena to destroy forage and supplies. Jenkins led assault - 1 killed, 10-12 wounded. March to Helena. Attack 7 mi from Helena at Polk's plantation on the Little Rock Road by rebel cavalry; lost 7-8 killed and 2 commissioned officer and 20 prisoners. Nothing after this till Jl. 4, 1863.

Fought Marmaduke's cavalry. Pursued Price. Attacked by Marmaduke, Oct. 25, 1863 with 3000.

[My analysis of casualities in Company G.]

141	- total in company
1	- killed in action
22	- died of disease, mostly dysentery, chronic diahhrea, measeles, and pneumonia
1	- killed by falling tree while on picket duty
6	- taken prisoner.

[Family lore has it that Alexander Moore was reported drowned in service altho shot in ~~head~~ head while leading his horse down to the river. He could hardly be the man drowned at Black River, near Jackson port or post when attacked by Tex. Rangers as that skirmish took place Jl. 6, 1862. More than likely he was the 1 killed in the Jenkins assault enroute to Helena, perhaps at Polks plantation.]

LINN COUNTY, KANSAS
A HISTORY
By
WILLIAM ANSEL MITCHELL
Written to give and preserve the more intimate knowledge of incidents of world-wide importance and marking an epochal period in the history of the human race.
COPYRIGHT 1928

AT LAST!..... Our cemetery book is finished and at the publishers!

A 785 page book which has been titled " 100 CEMETERIES and BURIAL SITES In LINN COUNTY, KANSAS", this is a listing of over 23,000 burials.! There are maps showing the cemeteries in each township and a map for each cemetery, showing the blocks and lots , the owners of each lot and every known burial on the lot, marked & unmarked. Each cemetery is complete with surname index or listed alphabetically, and the history of many of these is included,along with information about several burials in them. We expect to have the books on hand in about 6 weeks. A special pre-publication price is being offered as follows: Soft Cover- [redacted] $2 postage $21.95 + p&h, after August 1st. Hard Back- [redacted] $34.95 + p & h, after August 1st.(Kansans add 4% tax) ORDER NOW & SAVE!

We are also having a re-print of "Linn County, Kansas- A History", published in 1928 by Wm. A. Mitchell. This is an excellent book, with many of the articles written by the author in 1895, from interviews with the early settlers themselves! This book has been out of print and unavailable for several years. Our last copies sold for $20.00. We are selling these re-prints for $12.95 + $1.00 postage & handling. These are a MUST for all Linn Countains or anyone who had ancestors here.

The Kansas State Historical Society Library

Topeka, Kansas 66612

Dear Sir:

We have been in correspondence before. A copy of my 400 page unpublished thesis "The Religious Background of the Eisenhower Family" is deposited in your archives, one chapter of which was published in The Kansas Historical Quarterly, Autumn, 1963, pages 233-249.

Since retirement I have been engaged in my own family's genealogy. I shall be in Topeka October 16 and 17 to further that research, on a great-great grandfather, one Rhodes Tipton.

To date I have evidence

1. that his daughter Emma (my great-great grandmother) was born near Lawrence, Ks. 6 July, 1854.

2. that he and his second wife and their considerable combined families were enumerated in Babcock's Territorial Census of Jan.-Feb., 1855.

3. that he and 2 adult sons and 2 sons-in-law were listed as voters from Iowa in the First Election District of Ks. Terr. in Jan.-Feb., 1855.

4. that in the Ks. Terr. Census of 1860 he and his family resided as farmers in Scott Township of Linn County, where the aforementioned Emma was known to have moved while yet a child.

My question is: Precisely where did RHODES TIPTON and family live between July 1854 and 1860, other than "First Election District" (a large area south of the Kaw stretching from Lawrence to the Missouri state line)? Did he stake a land claim somewhere within these boundaries, as he was known to have farmed earlier in both Ohio and Iowa?

I need to consult early land records for Kansas Territory. Where are these obtainable?

Please reply at your earliest convenience. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Gladys Todd

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR F. Z. GILLET —BURY AT GRACELAND

Funeral services for Freeman Z. Gillet were held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Burlington Christian church and were in charge of Rev. S. H. Barley, the pastor. A quartet composed of C. O. Beavers, W. T. Phares, Mrs. John Shobe and Mrs. C. B. Shull, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. C. O. Beavers sang "City Four Square," "Rock of Ages" and "Saved by Grace." The pallbearers were Henry Hatch, Dan Hatch, Joe Isch, Harry Pennock, Andy Hoach and Ernest Wood. Interment was in Graceland cemetery.

Freeman Zachary Gillet, son of Homer and Elizabeth Gillet, was born February 11, 1848 and departed this life December 12, 1933 at the home 10 miles west of Burlington. He moved with his parents to Missouri when seven years old, coming to Kansas when thirteen years old, where he has resided ever since. He was married to Emma Tipton October 16, 1870. To this union seven children were born. His wife and three children preceded him in death: Frank Gillet, Wood Gillet and Mrs. Ella Swibold. Those left to mourn his departure are three sons Wilson Gillet and John F. Gillet of near Burlington and Edward Gillet of Osawatomie and one daughter, Mrs. Mabel McEnterfer of Emporia; seven grand daughters and one grandson and nine great grandchildren, other relatives and a host of friends. Grandpa Gillet was converted at a meeting held at the Gillet schoolhouse a great many years ago, but never placed his membership elsewhere. Grandpa as he was known by all was of a very quiet disposition but knew the hardship of pioneer life and life among the Indians. He often told his grandchildren stories of his pioneer life and life with the Indians which they enjoyed very much.

MANY FRIENDS AT FUNERAL SERVICES OF MRS. GILLETT

The funeral of Mrs. F. Z. Gillett was held from the Christian church in Burlington at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon and a large crowd attended the funeral. Rev. S. H. Barley conducted the services. Mrs S. H. arley, Mrs. Lewis Eccles, W. T. Phares and Ancil Beavers sang "Beautiful Isle", "Shall We Gather at the River" and "No Night There". They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Melita Hamman. Pallbearers were Solen Paxon, B. B. Snell, Howard Patterson, Harry Pennock, E. O. Grant and E. G. Woods. Interment was in Graceland cemetery.

Emma Tipton, eldest child of Roads and Rebecca Tipton was born near Lawrence, July 6, 1854 and departed this life January 21, 1932. Mrs. Gillett moved with her parents to La Cygne, when a small girl. Here she was united to Freeman Z. Gillett, October 16, 1870. They came to Coffey county in about the year 1873, homesteading the place where she resided at the time of her death. "Grandma", as she was known to her friends knew the trials and hardships of pioneer life.

To this unin were born seven children, three having preceded her in death Woods, Frank and Ella Swibold. Those left to mourn her departure besides her aged husband are her three sons, Wilson and John F. of near Burlington, Edward of Osawatomie and one daughter, Mabel McEnterfer, of Emporia. Nine grandchildren and eight great grandchildren and other relatives and a host of friends. Mrs. Gillett was converted in a meeting held at what is known as the Gillett schoolhouse a great many years ago, having no class at this place she never placed her membership elsewhere. Mrs. Gillett was a woman who lived at home administering to the needs of her family and was loved by all who knew her.

Freeman Z. Gillet, pioneer resident of the western part of Coffey county, died Tuesday evening, December 12, 1933.

Free Gillet Came to Coffey County Seventy Years Ago

Free Gillet, 83-year old farmer living ten miles southwest of Burlington, is believed to have lived in Coffey county longer than any other man who is alive. He came here in 1861. Mr. Gillet was a boy when he came here and has lived in Coffey county practically 70 years, almost all of the time since 1861. He settled on a homestead where he now lives. Mrs. Gillet is still living, too, but she did not come to Coffey county until they were married. She says they used to drive to Lawrence to do their trading and years later, she can remember when her husband walked to Burlington and carried a sack of flour home on his back. Mr. Gillet carried mail from Burlington to El-Dorado for several years when he was a young man. He is still able to get around and does considerable work. During the spring and summer months he gets out in the garden and fields with a hoe and during the winter months he helps cut wood.

From survivors and participants in wars to migrations from other countries, each family has stories no one has ever written down. Here is space to do so to record forever what will be lost if it remains "oral history."

FREEMAN GILLETT PASSES —WAS PIONEER RESIDENT

Death has taken Freeman Z. Gillett, one of the pioneer residents of this part of Coffey county, who has been critically ill of heart trouble for some time at his home in the Hopewell neighborhood. Mr. Gillett was 86 years old. He died about 6 o'clock Tuesday evening. Mr. Gillett was born at Norton, Ohio, and came to Kansas when 13 years old. He had been growing gradually weaker for several days and had taken no nourishment since Friday. His son, Will Gillett, who was injured recently, is still bedfast and was not able to be up to attend the funeral.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon from the Burlington Christian church and were in charge of Rev. S. H. Barley. Interment was in Graceland cemetery.

After an illness of four days, Mrs. Rebecca Tipton died at her home near Parlinville, Wednesday, November 18, aged 81 years. Deceased was born in Ireland but came to this country many years ago. She united with the Christian church in 1871 and for twenty-five years was a devoted Christian. She leaves three sons and two daughters to mourn her loss. Funeral services were conducted Thursday by Elder Blanding of this city and the remains were interred in Ewing cemetery.

one of the largest and most pleasant meetings held for some time.

The building known as Olney's shop, on railroad street, which is now occupied by a colored family, caught fire about 4 o'clock Wednesday morning and a large number of our citizens were aroused from peaceful slumbers to help put out the fire, which was done before much damage resulted. The fire was the result of a bit of carelessness as it caught from a pile of ashes which had been dumped out through a hole in the corner of the house.

The Christian church hold services during the winter as follows: Bible school every Lord's day at 10 a. m. Preaching every two weeks at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Social services every Lord's day at 12 m. Christian Endeavor each Lord's day at 6:30 p. m. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. To all our services you are cordially invited. "Come thou with us and we will do thee good."

M. BROWNRIGG, Pastor.

Perry F. Chambers, of this city has received notice from the United States Patent office that on November 10 he was granted a patent on shafts for buggies, etc. The shafts are so constructed that, when in use, the horse can walk in the beaten track and the strain will be equalized on both sides, as the pull upon the singletree will tend to draw the end of the lever with which it is connected backward and to force the opposite end forward, thus having the same effect as if a horse were connected at both ends of the lever. Mr. Chambers has been using a pair of these shafts to his own buggy during the past year and they appear to do just what is claimed for them.

A shooting scrape in which, unfortunately for the people of this community, no one was hurt occurred Wednesday night at Allen & Carnagey's livery barn. Last week Charley Carnagey bought a new mackintosh which he kept hanging on a nail in the office of the livery barn when not using it. Some time during Wednesday the coat was carried from its accustomed place and a search of the barn revealed it carefully hid away under a feed box in a manger in the shed part of the barn. Supposing that the thief had been afraid to attempt to carry the coat away in daylight and intended to return for it some time during the night, Mr. Carnagey and George Hughs concealed themselves near where the coat was hidden and awaited developments. They had not long to wait, for about 10 o'clock the east door of the barn was carefully opened and a man stepped in, striking a watch. As soon as the watch was lighted Hughs called to the intruder to stand still and throw up his hands, but if he had told the fellow to run it would have had the same effect. Hughs fired three shots at the fleeing scoundrel, but missed the mark.

Jacob R. Tipton

Jacob R. Tipton, 97, Lawrence, died Sunday, Dec. 8, at a Lawrence nursing home.

Mr. Tipton was retired greenskeeper for Ottawa Country Club.

He was born June 13, 1888, the son of Edward and Jennie Combs Tipton. He moved to Lawrence from Ottawa 25 years ago.

He was a veteran of World War I.

Nieces and nephews survive.

Graveside services will be at 3 p.m. Tuesday in Gridley Cemetery at Gridley in Coffey County. Warren-McElwain Mortuary, Lawrence is in charge of arrangements.

MONTRA ETTA JACKSON (TIPTON) remarried after divorce to a J JENSEN. She died 4 Sept 1974 at Columbus Montana.

IRA NELTON or NELTON IRA worked in the Oil Fields near Gridley Ks. at the time he married LOLA MYRTLE CULVER (CHAMBERS) soon after he went to work on a section gang for the MOP.R R. out of YATES CENTER, KANSAS. By the time I married my wife LOIS CHAMBERS on 11 Sept 1952 he was still with the MOP. but was spending as much if not more time in hospitals or ill than working he died of cancer 5 Jul 1967 at Wichita Vet. Hosp. he is buried in the Yates Center,Ks Cemetary.

I have not persued the TIPTON line much in my genealogical searches, As I have my hands full with my family lines of WILLIAMS, EFINGER, CRANE, BUCHANAN and my wife's of CHAMBERS, CULVER, STINES, & RINER.

So Hopefully I have given you a little more on the TIPTON line for what it is worth. I do have detailed data on the younger TIPTON children and their children & some on NELTON'S Brothers and Sisters but not near all.
If you are interested will be glad to share what I have.

Now I have a couple of questions I would like to run by you.
1) Are you aware of or know who was SARAH J TIPTON who purchased property in LINN, COUNTY. 160 acres on the S.W. 1/4 of S. 22, T. 20, R. 24 on the 27 Nov 1860. Was or is she related ??
The 160 acres that REBECCA put in trust for the 3 young children EMMA, SARAH, EDWARD. with stipulation that it was not to be sold until EDWARD was age 21 then 1/2 was his the other half went to the 2 girls. And that was discribed as the N.E. 1/4 of S. 14, T. 20, R. 20 deeded 12 May 1863.
(By my calculations that was about 5 miles west and 1 north of the land that SARAH J TIPTON owned.)

2) Did REBECCA remarry after the death of RHODES? on MAy 12 1863 when REBECCA put the farm in "a trust" to the three young children. The J.P. a SAMUEL H HOUSER states that he interviewed her apart from her husband and that she was executing the instrument without compulsion or undue influence of her said husband.
The deed was witnessed by WILLIAM TIPTON who made his mark "+".
No mention of name of husband however??
Any questions of if you are interested in any of the information I may have please write I will be more that happy to share.

Arvada,Colorado, 8ØØØ3

Dear Miss Dodd:

In passing thru Mond City and Pleasanton Kansas a couple of weeKs ago, I was pleasantly surprised to find your booklet on the TIPPY/TIPTON families at the Museum/Library.

I had been in that area several years ago and had been told there was in process a survey of county cemetaries.

As I was aware that RHODES TIPTON and wife REBECCA and 3 children were present in Linn County in 186Ø but by 187Ø only REBECCA and children were counted. So assuming that RHODES had died prior to 187Ø.

My wife is the Step-Daughter of IRA NELTON TIPTON, 23 Feb 1892 - 5 Jul 1967, Ks., Son of EDWARD TIPTON, Apr 186Ø, Ks. and JENNIE ALICE COUMBS Jun 1864 Or. Son of RHODES TIPTON and REBECCA of Linn Co.

EDWARD TIPTON on 2 Jul 1885 married JENNIE ALICE COUMBS, they had at least 7 children:

EMMA M	Aug 1886 married CHRIS FAHRNY	2 Jul 19Ø3
JACOB RHODES	Jun 1888 married ??
IRA NELTON	23 Feb 1892 married MONTRA ETTA JACKSON	25 Aug 192Ø
ELIZABETH VALENTINE	Feb 189Ø married WALTER E	Dec 1893 married GLADYS McCORMICK
REBECCA RUTH	Feb 1896 married JOE BIRK	7 Jan 1913
CARRIE M	Mar 1899 married PERRY M JOHNSON	22 Dec 192Ø

IRA NELTON TIPTON & MONTRA ETTA (JACKSON) had 2 son's.

NELTON IVWIN TIPTON 29 Oct 1921, married 5 Feb 1943 to HAZEL JEANETTE LONG, reside at Tacoma Wash. last report were moving to Montana.

JACK EUGENE TIPTON 2Ø Aug 1923 married BARBARA NICHOLSEN, reside in Montana 2 children a boy and a girl.

MONTRA ETTA JACKSON, 13 June 19Ø1, her parents were MORTIMER ANDREW JACKSON & DEBORA: Children ??

IRA and MONTRA were divorced; and on 2 May 1941 at Fort Scott, Kansas. (then known as NELTON IRA TIPTON he married LOLA MYRTLE CULVER (CHAMBERS), they had 4 children.

OBSERVATIONS:
There seemed to be quite a number of farmers who owned their farms in 1870. I can't say I located for sure the Overland Stage Trail gardens-farms.

Dear Gladys:

First let me apologize for not corresponding with you in a more timely manner. It has been some time I know.

Since I last wrote you I have retired from the Railroad and we have moved back to Kansas. I never realized how busy one can be after they retire until now. I have done a little in the research department, now that I am in the area where most of my families located , in the Kansas, Missouri, & Oklahoma areas.

Last week we were over to Pleasanton, Kansas and visited the Museum and see that you have recently updated the information you donated to the library there.

I recently found another researcher working on the Rebecca (Forbes) (Moore) Tipton lines and have received some data from him I thought you might like to look over. I also took the privilege of sending him your address as he said he has a DODD / HEWELLYN family in his ancestry and would like to contact you, I hope you don't mind.

The pages I am sending you as I understand are from Elizabeth Bryan Forbes, also understand she has placed her "Forbes Genealogy" in the Keosauqua, Iowa Library as well as Iowa Hist. Soc. And in Salt Lake, and the Library of Congress. Anyway I found the information quite interesting reading and ties in with the data you and I had on the family.

If you haven't been to the library in Pleasanton lately you would be amazed at the additions and construction they have done in the last couple of years.

The person I received this data from is.

Ronald S. Beatty
P.O. Box 2142
Shawnee Mission, KS. 66201

Just yesterday I visited with a Linda (Shook) Graham daughter of Darlene (Johnson) Shook, Daughter of Carri Mabel (Tipton) Johnson, Daughter of Edward Tipton. And we are conspiring to get her family data down, also have talked to some of the Birk family descendants from the Gridley, Coffey County area.

I'm toying with the idea of trying to set up a family reunion of the Tipon descendants next summer, will wait and see if I can get any response form my quires before I set it in motion.

JOHN FORBES, born in Ireland, date not known, married MARY ANTHONY, The daughter of Henry and Mary (Muldoon) ANTHONY, also born in Ireland, they had seven children.

(i) MARY FORBES, born in Ireland, date not known.
(ii) JAMES FORBES, born August 17, 1802, In Ireland, Died April 14, 1870, He married Margaret Jeffery.
(iii) ELEANOR FORBES, born in Ireland, about 1804, married John Moore.
(iv) ROBERT FORBES, born October 25, 1807, in Ireland, married Elizabeth Houk, He died August 20, 1888.
(v) JANE FORBES, born about 1808, in Ireland, married Jonathon Guinea, She died about 1839.
(vi) JOSEPH FORBES, about 1809, in Ireland, No other information.
(vii) MARTHA FORBES, born November 11, 1813, in Tyronne County, Ireland, married William Harrison Johnson on January 6, 1831, in Carroll County, Ohio. She died September 2, 1889, at Mt. Zion, Van Buren County, Iowa.

John Forbes remarried, this time to MARY AGER, born about 1788, in Tyronne County, Ireland, they had six children. Mary (Ager) Forbes died December 22, 1860, in Mt Zion, Van Buren County, Iowa.

(I)
(I) ANN (NANCY) FORBES, born June 6 1813, in Tyronne County, Ireland. She married John James Ager, She died March 23, 1898, in Mt Zion, Van Buren County, Iowa.

Some discrepancy exists here if these dates are correct, It shows Martha the last child of John Forbes's first marriage is born 5 months after the birth of Ann the first child of his second marriage.

(ii) REBECCA FORBES, born October 10, 1815, in Tyronne County, Ireland.(See her name below.)
(iii) JOHN FORBES, born about 1819 in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, married August 13, 1861, to Jane Goff, He died April 15, 1896.
(iv) SUSAN (SUSANNAH) FORBES, born about 1821, in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, married James Forbes, She died July 3, 1882.

(v) SARAH FORBES is named as next older than her sister Margaret and following Susannah, born April 17, 1823. In Franklin County, Pennsylvania. She married David Hootman, She died January 31, 1886.

There is however a difficulty in this. In the letter of Alexander Ager, Written May 15, 1832, He says that "Mary was sick through she has got to a perfect state of health now after being upwards to seven months sick which nearly closed the scene with her. She had a child born it only survived a few days." He does not say that Mary refers to his sister Mary Forbes. I know not, however to whom else the name could refer. The Forbes family make no mention of any such child in any of their accounts or records. It can be that this one was a child of Mary and has been disregarded in the family pedigree, and having died the child Sarah may have followed, in 1823 or 1824.

(vi) MARGARET JEFFERY FORBES, youngest child of John and Mary (Ager) Forbes, was born near Greencastle, Franklin County, Pennsylvania, March 22, 1825, She married Benjamin Beatty.

There being some discrepancy with regard to the year. One account given me in 1900,, gives her birth 1827, Others, however, put it in 1825 or 1826. In later life she and her family adopted or accepted 1825 as the true date, and on March 22, 1925 she observed the hundredth anniversary of her birth, and she died on April 7, 1925, in Keosauqua, Van Buren County, Iowa.. If she was born as late as 1827, or even 1826, There was time for Sarah to precede Margaret and to follow the child who died within a few days of its birth, Assuming the child to be that of Mary Forbes.

REBECCA FORBES, daughter of John Forbes and Mary Ager, was born October 10, 1815 in Tyronne County, Ireland, She was brought by her parents to America in the family party headed by her Grandfather Ager in 1817, when she was a little less than two years old. She was taken by her parents when a child to Ohio, where she married Thomas Moore, date not given, but probably in the early or middle years of the 1830-40 decade. She with her mother, her husband Moore and three or four children born in Ohio, formed part of a company of seventeen persons who moved from Carroll County, to Van Buren County, Iowa, in 1843.

THOMAS MOORE and Rebecca Forbes had five children all born in Ohio. My data of this family are meager, and I have not the birth dates of any of them but they probably ran as follows: MARY ANN:, JOHN:, ALEXANDER:, ELLEN:, MARGARET:,

Were they bound for here in 1854?

(1) MARY ANN MOORE, married John Shaffer. James A. Ager says that the family moved to Oregon soon after the Civil War. Her Nephew John J. Mitchell gives a list of her children as follows: REBECCA:, THOMAS:, JAMES:, SIRENIS:, ELLEN:, ULYSSES:, AND GEORGE SHAFFER:. He stated that Rebecca married one David Phillips and lived at one time at Cabool, Missouri. An inquiry at the Cabool Post Office brought the reply that these people were unknown to them. No other data on this family.

(2) JOHN MOORE, son of Rebecca (Forbes) Moore, married Sarah Orr, Probably in Van Buren County, Iowa, about 1856. He moved to Kansas about 1858, and was with the Kansas Militia inn the Civil War and with his regiment joined forces with the Federal Troops under General Pleasanton in driving General Price and confederate troops off the soil of Kansas.

John Moore has been described as a short man with long body and short legs, large red beard, and red hair. He was a very successful farmer in Coffey County, Kansas, and was considered wealthy. He died suddenly of heart disease about 1898-9. I am unable to give any detail of his family except that he had a son (1) THOMAS A. MOORE, and a daughter (2) Name not stated., both lived in Gridley, Kansas. another daughter, (3) MRS.. ELLA PENNOCK, lived at Burlington, Kansas.

see p. 5 - says 1852 - prob. not correct.

(3) ELLEN MOORE, daughter of Thomas Moore and Rebecca Forbes, married Robert Mitchell, date not stated. He was born in (County) Armagh, Ireland in 1832, and died in Coffey County, Kansas, in April 1874. They had four children, all born in Coffey or Linn County, Kansas. The children of Ellen Moore and Robert Mitchell:

(a) THOMAS OSCAR MITCHELL, was born June 6, 1864, married Augusta Hepner in 1897. They lived at Burlington, Coffey County, Kansas, and their children are (I) EARL:, (ii) PEARL:, (iii) JESSE:, (iv) CHRIST (CHRISTOPHER, OR CHRISTIAN):, (v) MABEL:, (vi) LEONARD:. (vii) FLOSSIE and (viii) IVAN MITCHELL.

(b) JOHN JAMES MITCHELL, was born in Coffey County, Kansas, September 1, 1866, He has never married.

© ROBERT FREEMAN MITCHELL, was born May 15, 1870 in Linn or Coffey County, Kansas, he married Callie Sanders at Burlington, Kansas. Their children are. (I) ETHEL:, (ii) ERNEST:. (iii) GRACE:, (iv) GOLDA:, (v) MABEL:, (vi) NINA:, (vii) ROBERT:, and (viii) OPAL MITCHELL. They lived in Long Beach, California.

(d) MARTHA ELLEN MITCHELL, born in Linn or Coffey County, Kansas, March, 1872, married T. L. Jackson at Gridley, Kansas, in 1890. They lived at Fort Morgan, Colorado, and had four children,- (I) HAZEL:, (b) RALPH:, © ELVA:, and (d) ETHEL JACKSON.

Mrs. Ellen (Moore) Mitchell married, (2) James R. Vaughan, about 1880, and had one child. (I) KATE ELIZABETH VAUGHAN was born at Strawn, Kansas, May 17, 1881, married C. Lingenfelter, February 7, 1900, at Burlington, Kansas. They had four children;

(a) PEARL LINGENFELTER, born January 19. 1901, died July 20, 1902.,
(b) ERNEST LINGENFELTER, born September 30, 1903.
© ELSIE LINGENFELTER, BORN December 11, 1905, married George Sanders, December 19, 1923, at Gridley, Kansas. They lived at Gridley and had one child, (a) MAX LEON SANDER.
(e) RAY LINGENFELTER, born May 9, 1908.

(4) ALEXANDER MOORE, son of Rebecca Moore, never married. He enlisted in Company G of the fifth Regiment of Kansas Volunteer Cavalry, October 11 1861, was promoted to Corporal and was killed while on picket duty at Helena, Arkansas, April 3, 1863. The Adjutant General of Kansas reports him "Killed in Action".

Alexander Moore took up a claim of Government land before he enlisted as a soldier. The land is located in Coffey County, Kansas, not far from the town of Gridley. I am informed that after his death his mother Rebecca as next of kin completed the necessary steps to perfect title and was granted a patent for the land. I am not sure whether Alexander Moore or his sister Ellen was the elder.

(5) MARGARET MOORE, daughter of Thomas and Rebecca (Forbes) Moore, was born in Ohio, she was three or four years old when her family moved to Iowa. John A. Ager, her cousin, is my authority that she moved to Kansas with her mother and died there in 1857 or 1858, age 17 years, He also said that she was married, but did not remember any names.

Thomas Moore, the father died a few years after their arrival in Iowa, and Mrs.. Rebecca (Forbes) Ager married a man named Tipton, probably in Van Buren County, Iowa. His Christian name is written Rhodes which I also find written as Rhoads by some of his descendants. James A. Ager called him Moses Tipton, but this is probably an error or lapse of memory.

The name of John Moore of New Hagerstown, Ohio, has already been seen in connection with the shipwreck of the Lord Nelson, and I wish to observe that he was not related to the Thomas Moore who married Rebecca Forbes as far as known.

Rebecca (Forbes) Moore Tipton was a pioneer settler of Iowa and Kansas. The date of her settlement in Kansas is stated to have been 1852 (letter of Ann Ager, January__, 1895, but her son James A. Ager puts it in 1856 (see his letter of to the writer). Both statements are probably from memory only, but may be accepted as approximately correct. The following account of their removal to and early life in Kansas is based upon the narrative of James A. Ager. (1854)

(Rhodes) He says that his Aunt Rebecca moved to Kansas in 1856, after her second marriage, to Moses Tipton, That he had two sons who with his aunt's three younger children went out there by Ox team and Horses. They drove cattle through, stopped at Indian Mission, a reservation for the Shawnee Indians, where there were schools and churches, eighteen miles from the place then know as Westport Landing on the Missouri River, now Kansas City, Missouri. They remained at the Mission several months where the children attended school with the Indian children. Tipton and family and a lot of stock he had got through trading with the Indians, went to a claim in Linn County twelve miles west of the Missouri line. Sometime in the fall of 1858 the able Indians went up the Kaw River hunting winter meat, antelope and deer in plenty. After they were away Ellen slipped away with her two ponies and rode for the Missouri River miles away, Crossing the line she kept on the Missouri side for four days and at the end of the ninth day found her mother and sister Maggie and brother Alexander. They kept her trail for a long time but no Indians followed.

In 1859, Mr. Ager says, his Aunt Rebecca came to Iowa and sold the Tom Moore homestead of 80 acres, located within one half mile of a school. His mother buying 20 acres of the land, and his Uncle Robert Forbes (half-brother of Rebecca) for $10.00 an acre. Thomas Moore had built a good house on this farm and when Rebecca moved to Kansas she left her son John Moore on the place. After Rebecca had left it the house burned down. John Moore, son of Rebecca, just mentioned, had moved to Kansas, and had been there just a few days when Ellen came home. Ellen married Bob Mitchell, with red hair and beard, in 1852. They fitted out a team, came to Iowa and stayed a year. She was afraid of the Shawnee, never spoke of them as Indians.

Mr. Ager was in Coffey County in 1900, called at the old Moore home where his cousin John Moore had died in the 1890's, and saw Thomas Moore's wife who pointed out the Alexander Moore claim. Alexander Moore had a claim on land, but was killed in the Civil War. See his name. His mother completed this claim.

Mr Tipton was killed in 1864 in what was known as the Price Raid. General Price, with a division of Confederate troops undertook to enter Kansas soil. The Governor of Kansas getting word of his movements ordered out all of the militia. Federal troops were also sent. The first stand was made at Independence, Missouri, the Missouri River, whence the confederates fled to Lone Jack, a small town on Blue creek. From this place the main body of Price's army retreated towards Kansas. After a few hours the Federal troops turned West after the main army followed Blue Creek Valley, fighting again at Blue Church. Price got over into Kansas and meeting General Pleasant federal troops and Kansas militia was driven back into Missouri and followed to the Arkansas line. There was a hot battle at Mound City also one further north where the town of Pleasanton in Linn County, named after General Pleasant is now located. Mr. Tipton, it appears, was not an enlisted man in either State Militia or the Federal forces but was fighting voluntarily or as an independent. He was buried where he fell at the headwaters of Blue Creek, Missouri, a few miles south of Wyandotte. Wyandotte was one of the municipalities that Merged to form the present City of Kansas City, Kansas.

Mrs. Rebecca (Forbes) Moore Tipton died in Linn County, Kansas, November 18, 1896.

+ RHODES TIPTON

EDWARD TIPTON, son of Rhoads Tipton and Rebecca Forbes, was born in Linn County, Kansas, April 4, 1860, died at Gridley, Kansas, November 23, 1929. He married Jennie Combs, July 2, 1885, at Gridley, Kansas . She was born June, 28, 1864 in Oregon. They had seven children. Of all their children,-

(I) EMMA TIPTON, born August 4, 1886, at Gridley, Kansas, died at Fairlinsville, Linn County, Kansas, November 17, 1905, Married July 2, 1903 at Burlington, Kansas, Christopher Fahrny. They had one child, (a) EMMA ELIZABETH FAHRNY, died in infancy.

Dear Researcher:

Once again in perusing your letter of 1996, I noted some difficulties with data regarding my direct blood line - namely Gladys Dodd[5], d/o Chloe Gillet[4], d/o Wilson Gillet[3] (m. Maggie MANN), Emma Tipton[2] (m. Freeman Gillet), d/o Rebecca Forbes Moore[1] (m. Rhodes Tipton). All of these ancestors I knew personally until you get back to Rebecca Forbes Moore Tipton, and I still own "Granny Rebecca Tipton's 39 acres of the farm claim (obtained by Alexander after his Civil War death at Helena, Ark.) in Coffey Co, Ks., about 5 miles north of Gridley. This town was my mother Chloe's P.O. address as she was born and reared 6 miles north of Gridley on the Wilson Gillet farm which I inherited in 1979. These 80 acres I sold about 1990 to the Ivan Beyer family of Gridley.

New information from your research identified Mary AGER (not Mary Anthony) of Ireland as the mother of Rebecca Forbes. Thanks for the clarification. I had some information on father John Forbes though.

Also new to me was detailed information re. the alleged battle death of my great-great-grandfather Rhodes Tipton, Linn Co., Ks. in the "Price Raid" of the Civil War. While my family tradition cites his "Civil War" loss of life, the account differs, and I did a great deal of research over the years to substantiate - at LDS archives at Salt Lake City, Topeka Historical archives, as well as those at the Spencer Research Library at Lawrence, at Pleasanton, in the LaCygne cemetery records, and in the state library at Des Moines, Ia. My great-grandmother Emma Tipton Gillet was born in Ks. Territory just south of the new settlement of Lawrence on 6 July, 1854. She died in Coffey Co. 21 Jan, 1932 when I was 9 1/2; I remember her well. She said she was 7 when her father was lost in the war ((1861).

I do have data re. Rhodes and wife Rebecca's sojourn in Johnson Co. (his suit and settlement with Mr. Johnson over the farm property located on the Santa Fe trail at Shawnee Mission), and their subsequent return to Linn Co. to suffer the depredations of border unrest, led in part by infamous John Brown, during the tragic 6 1/2 Years Ks. and Mo. engaged in border warfare over the admission of Ks. as a free state. I deduce from family tradition and some property transfer documents that Rhodes lost his life before Price''s Raid in a skirmish during that period when Ks. lost many to Mo. bushwhackers. (1864)

I am grateful for help in missing pieces re. Edward Tipton and Sarah Harding, siblings of Emma Tipton. Edward and sister Emma both lived at Gridley. I would like to know more about the AGERS - thier journey to. Am. in 1817. Rebecca Forbes' father John Forbes died in Stark Co., Ohio between 1820-30; some of his kin went west to Van Buren Co. Iowa where my ancestors Rhodes Tipton and widow Rebecca Forbes Moore were Married 22 Sept., 1853. at Keosaugua. This couple went to Ks. Terr. in 1854. The 1855 Terr. Census list by name the 12 members of their family who came in that overland trek. Please keep me informed. Can I help you?

Lorri,

The enclosed pages are from Ervin Tipton's "We Tiptons and Our Kin". I've included sheets on the parents, grandparents and siblings of Rhodes Tipton. The organization of the genealogy is rather hard to follow. It also has mistakes in it, so use it carefully.

CHAPTER III

SECOND GENERATION

"WE TIPTONS and OUR KIN" by ERVIN CHARLES TIPTON (1975)

SECTION I, THOMAS TIPTON[2] (1693-1763), SON OF JONATHAN I (1639-1757)

Thomas Tipton[2], first son of Jonathan I and first wife, Sarah Pierce (Pearce), was born in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, April 8, 1693. He along with his brothers William and Jonathan II were baptized in St. James Episcopal Church on Herring Creek, on April 25, 1699 (St. James Parish Records. Vol. 1, p.309). He died in Maryland, presumably Baltimore, in-post 1763. On October 5, 1716 he married, Blt.Md. Sarah Steptoe, b. Blt.Md. Aug., 8, 1702 and died February 5, 1743. Sarah  was a descendant of Dr. James Steptoe of "Harmony Hall", "in the curve of the river, (Rappahannock?) at Bonum's Creek, near to Pecatone." It is supposed that the father of Dr. James Steptoe was Philip Steptoe of "Teddington," in Lancaster County, Virginia, as Dr. James Steptoe removed from Lancaster County to Westmoreland County in 1738. And Philip, in turn was the son of John Steptoe, who was the son of Anthony Steptoe, the immigrant to Virginia, about the year 1690. It is known that the seat of the Steptoe family in Virginia-in Middlesex, was "Teddington." The early history of this family is revealed in an epitaph from an old tombstone, lying in the garden there, where once was a very large and handsome building, with extensive grounds and commanding a view of the river. The epitaph reads as follows:

> "This tomb is sacred to the memory of the Hon. Philip Steptoe, Esq. in various employments of public trust, an example of loyalty to his King and affection to his country. In several relations of life, a pattern worthy of imitation. An equanimity which few are capable of, to whom Fortune had been so auspicious, conducted him through the various scenes of life and contributed to the amount of a ...; the most exalted, not only with propriety, but...not imperious with advancement...His rank and fortune make him extremely useful.
> He was descended of an ancient family of England, which came to Virginia in an honourable character. He was born in 1688, and on the 30th of May, 1748, his spirit returned to God, who gave it. His body reposes here in the sure and certain hope of a joyful resurrection."

The Crest engraved on the tomb-Knight's head crowned, a graphic illustration of which, together with the Steptoe family Coat-of-Arms appears on p. 26, herein. (For more on this family see " Some Prominent Virginia Families", pp. 714-719.)

Thomas Tipton[2] (1693-post 1763), son of Jonathan I, signed the "Oath of Allegiance" in Baltimore County, Maryland in 1776, making all of his descendants eligible for Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution. The pledge being as follows: on next page.

*(Hord says he died in 1734, but post 1763 is more correct.) because on May 17, 1763 he took part in the settlement of his father's estate. ( See DAR. Mem.#2544). Thomas is #62-H.

The "Oath of Allegiance" also called "The Patriots Oath."

"I do swear I do not hold myself bound to yield any allegiance to the King of Great Britian, his heirs or successors, and that I will be true and faithful to the State of Maryland, and the Freedom and Independence thereof, and the Governments established, against all open enemies and secrete traitorus conspiracies, and will use my utmost endeavors to disclose and make known to the Governor, or some of the Judges, or Justices thereof, all treasons, or traitorous conspiracies, attempts or combinations against this State, or Government thereof, which may come to my knowledge. So help me God."

As has been stated above, Thomas Tipton[2] (1693-post 1763), s/ Jonathan[1], married Sarah Steptoe in 1716. To show how closely Sarah Steptoe may have been related to George Washington, let us pursue the Steptoe Pedigree further:

John Steptoe, son of Anthony Steptoe, married a rich widow, Mrs. Eustice, and Anne Steptoe, daughter of Dr. James Steptoe, married Samuel Washington, brother of General George Washington, the first President of the United States. George Steptoe Washington, son of Samuel Washington and nephew of George Washington, is men-illustration of which, together with the Steptoe family Coat-of-Arms appears on p. 26, herein. (For more on this family see " Some Prominent Virginia Families", pp. 714-719.)

Thomas Tipton[2] (1693-post 1763), son of Jonathan I, signed the "Oath of Allegiance" in Baltimore County, Maryland in 1776, making all of his descendants eligible for Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution. The pledge being as follows: on next page.

*(Hord says he died in 1734, but post 1763 is more correct.)because on May 17, 1763 he took part in the settlement of his father's estate. ( See DAR. Mem.#2544). Thomas is #62-H.

The "Oath of Allegiance" also called "The Patriots Oath."

"I do swear I do not hold myself bound to yield any allegiance to the King of Great Britian, his heirs or successors, and that I will be true and faithful to the State of Maryland, and the Freedom and Independence thereof, and the Governments established, against all open enemies and secrete traitorus conspiracies, and will use my utmost endeavors to disclose and make known to the Governor, or some of the Judges, or Justices thereof, all treasons, or traitorous conspiracies, attempts or combinations against this State, or Government thereof,which may come to my knowledge. So help me God."

As has been stated above, Thomas Tipton[2] (1693-post 1763),s/ Jonathan[1], married Sarah Steptoe in 1716. To show how closely Sarah Steptoe may have been related to George Washington, let us pursue the Steptoe Pedigree further:

John Steptoe, son of Anthony Steptoe, married a rich widow, Mrs. Eustice, and Anne Steptoe, daughter of Dr. James Steptoe, married Samuel Washington, brother of General George Washington, the first President of the United States. George Steptoe Washington, son of Samuel Washington and nephew of George Washington, is mentioned in the General's will. (Ref: "The Steptoe Family" p. 715 in "Some Prominent Virginia Families.)

Dr. James Steptoe of "Harmony Hall", was married first, to a Miss. Hannah Ashton, and Anne Steptoe was a daughter of this marriage. Dr. Steptoe's second marriage was to Mrs. Elizabeth Aylett (nee, Eskridge), the widow of Col. William Aylett of Westmoreland Co., Virginia. By the second marriage there were six children:

William, who married Elizabeth Robinson;_____ Steptoe, a daughter who married a Mr. Brent; George Steptoe who married _____ _____; Martha Steptoe (no more information); Sarah Steptoe who married Mr. Grymes; and James Steptoe who married Frances Callaway. The first son William, who married Elizabeth Robinson had a Martha Grymes Steptoe and a Sally Steptoe who married Philip Grimes.(Ibid)

The question in the mind of this writer is this: did Sarah, daughter of Dr. James Steptoe of "Harmony Hall"marry twice? A"Mr. Grymes" first and our Thomas Tipton next? It is hoped that some descendant of Thomas[2] will do some research on the matter.

A further postulation to substantiate the close relationship of Sarah Steptoe, wife of Thomas Tipton[2] and the Washingtons: According to Joseph H. Bell; Thomas Tipton[2], son of Jonathan[1] went (between December 9, 1745 and September 18, 1756) to Virginia,"possibly to Fairfax County", where Mordecai's Thomas mentioned having once lived-"seven miles from Mt. Vernon"-Washington's home. On September 18, 1766, a deed refers to him as "Thomas Tipton of the Colony of Virginia, Planter." His wife, Sarah(Steptoe)Tipton was living on May 17, 1763 when Thomas took part in the settlement of his father's estate. "It has not been dertermined how many, if any, of his children accompanied him to Virginia. There is, however, a strong supposition that one son, Solomon, resided at one time in

MY QUESTION:

Were my Tiptons and Coles related? If Rhodes Tipton were the son of William and Rebecca Tipton of Twp. Jefferson Co, Oh. as I have conjectured, they may be, as William and Rebecca were born in Maryland. They had a Jarrett. I have seen this in earlier census as a family given name in the Tipton family, variously spelled Garritt, Carrett, Jarrett, Jared. In there connection to Johanna Garrett?

March 4, 1997

Dear Gladys and Bill,

Here is the information I got on the Tiptons - a lead on Rhodes's parents. I have not yet followed up on anything, but wanted to get this to you both so we all have it and can take off on it at our leisure.

I have also requested more on Jonathan, Thomas, William and Joshua Tipton from the Tipton Family Association of America. That should be arriving shortly. We have to prove the Joshua-Rhodes connection, though.

All for now,

January 29, 1997

Dear Gladys,

Hello from your Michigan cousin. Thanks again for sending me all of information you have on the Rhodes Tipton family.

I have news from the Ohio Historical Library on the Tiptons - I don't believe that Rhodes Tipton is the son of Wm. Tipton of Jefferson County Ohio. I found Wm. Tipton's will, obituary, and other information (copies enclosed) which do not indicate a son named Rhodes. I was really hoping to find a connection with this family, as you speculated, but I suppose confirmation that they are NOT related is also progress.

I now agree; he prob. isn't GT Ja 2000

I was in Columbus last week, spent one day at the State Library of Ohio and one at the Ohio Historical Library. Their holdings are extensive, however, I was not very successful with any of the four families that I was searching, including the Tiptons.

I am also enclosing information on a Jonathan Tipton, Athens Co Ohio, right age to be Rhodes' father, but doesn't pan out. Lastly, I took a hunch to check the PA census, 1810 for Tiptons and found 9 possible candidates for Rhodes' father. Now, of course, this assumes that his father was in that census, and that he was born in PA. Tracing these 9 people, finding their deaths and wills and mention of a son named Rhodes is a huge undertaking, but I may embark on it . . . we'll see.

I wanted to update you with this information - nothing yet from the Tipton Family Association, although I now have some additional people to contact by e-mail, and see if any of them know of Rhodes.

Sincerely,

Lorri

TIPTON Died, in Wayne township, this county, Monday, March 24, 1879, WILLIAM TIPTON, in the 94th year of his age.
--Steubenville Weekly Gazette, Friday, March 28, 1879.

SOURCE: "DEATHS RECORDED IN STEUBENVILLE OHIO NEWSP" LEILA FRACY. (1992)

William Tipton, the oldest citizen of Wayne township, died Tuesday morning, March 25th, at his residence near Bloomfield, at the advanced age of 93 years and 19 days. Mr. T. was born in Baltimore county, Maryland, March 6, 1786, and came to this section of the country with his father in 1800, locating on a branch of McIntyre Creek.

He was married in June 1807, at the age of 21, to Miss Rebecca Matthews, with whom he lived on the farm adjoining the one upon which his father located until February, 1875, when death severed the tie by which they had been united for a period of 68 years. He was the father of eleven children, six sons and five daughters, of whom, John, James, Samuel, Charles M., Elizabeth, Nancy, Mrs. F. B. Cole and Mrs. Augustus Carter survive him. Jared, Mrs. Mary Williams and William had passed through the valley before him, as if to welcome the father on the other shore. He was a member of the M. E. Church....highly esteemed by the people....

NO HOLES!

(Rebecca) RUTH

He was buried at Bloomfield on the 26th,...Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large number was in attendance to pay the last tribute of respect to this aged father in Israel.

A most unusual relic was compiled by Filson Studios for the Steubenville Centennial Celebration of 1897. It is in poster form and measures 35 by 17 inches. A large center photograph measures 14 by 17 inches and contains 1223 individual numbered portraits of early citizens, all deceased as of 1897. On either side of the photo are names and numbers identifying each of the 1223 subjects. This list of names and numbers is reproduced on the pages that follow, however, some of these names are not in alphabetical sequence.

This photograph has been used as a background for the cover of this book. A reprint of this poster was made in 1975. Copies are available from Jefferson County Historical Association in Steubenville, Oh.

FILSON & SON'S CENTENNIAL GROUP OF DECEASED CITIZENS OF STEUBENVILLE & VICINITY - 1897

Including Bezaleel Wells and lady, and James Ross, the founders of the town, and James Hunter, the first white child born in Steubenville. Also embracing many persons of note, who were born and resided in the city and vicinity up to the present time, 1897.

This Historic Group placed in the Library by C. P. Filson, in honor of the Compilers of the Group, Mr. & Mrs. Davison Filson - for the benefit of future generations and is not to be Loaned or Removed from Library Building.

THE TODD FAMILY

There are two published accounts of separate Todd families in Maryland. One, by J. Hall Pleasants, dealt with the Todds of North Point, Balto. Co., and of Va., and was published as part of his lengthy articles on the Gorsuch and allied families in the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, starting in vol. 25. The other family was located primarily in A. A. Co. (although some family members appear in Balto. Co. records), and was the subject of an article by Christopher Johnston in the Maryland Historical Magazine, IX, 298-305.

TODD, GEOFFREY (1), of Denton, Co. Durham, Eng., d. 1637; his will was dated 8 Feb. 1637, and his est. was inv. on 9 March 1637; had iss.: MARGARET, b. c.1610, m. George Runthwaite on 10 June 1625 at Denton; CHRISTOPHER, prob. b. by 1615; JOHN, b. 16 May 1613 at Denton; and THOMAS, b. 12 Sept. 1619 (Pleasants, in Va. Mag., 26:99).

TODD, CHRISTOPHER (2), s. of Geoffrey (1), was prob. b. by 1615, and d. in 1680; m. Jane Burden on 24 Nov. 1636, at Denton; had iss.: WILLIAM, b. 22 Oct. 1637; CHRISTOPHER, b. 31 May 1640; GEOFFREY, b. 9 July 1643 (had iss.: MARY, b. by 1679); LANCELOT, b. 14 Oct. 1647; THOMAS, b. 25 April 1654; JOHN, b. 28 Feb. 1659; ANN, prob. b. after 1660 (Pleasants, Va. Mag., 26:100-102).

TODD, THOMAS (3), s. of Geoffrey (1), was b. 12 Sept. 1619 at Denton, Co. Durham; came to Md., where he d., having m. Anne Gorsuch, dau. of Rev. John and Anne (Lovelace) Gorsuch; after Todd's death she m. 2nd David Jones, and 3rd Capt. John Oldton; in Aug. 1664 Todd was in Gloucester Co., Va., when he purch. three tracts from Thomas Powell of Talbot Co.: 287½ a. Road River, half of Dickson, 100 a. with houses, and 300 a. Richardson; Thomas conv. these three tracts to Robert and John Todd on the same day; rep. Balto. birth in 1827, others. however, put it in 1825 or 1826. In later life she and her family adopted or accepted 1825 as the true date, and on March 22, 1925 she observed the hundredth anniversary of her birth, and she died _____ 1925. If she was born as late as 1827, or even 1826, there was time for Sarah to precede Margaret and to follow the child who died within a few days of its birth, assuming the child to have been that of Mary Forbes.

REBECCA FORBES

(B) Rebecca Forbes, daughter of John Forbes 2 and Mary Ager, was brought by her parents to America in the family party headed by her Grandfather Ager in 1817, when she was a little less than two years old. She was taken by her parents when a child to Ohio, where she married Thomas Moore, date not given, but probably in the early or middle years of the 1830-40 decade. She with her mother, her husband Moore and three or four children born in Ohio, formed part of a company of seventeen persons who moved from Carroll County, Ohio, to Van Buren County, Iowa, in 1843.

Thomas Moore and Rebecca Forbes had five children all born in Ohio. My data of this family are meager, and I have not the birth dates of any of them but they probably ran as follows: Mary Ann, John, Alexander, Ellen and Margaret. Thomas Moore, the father, died a few years after their arrival in Iowa, and Mrs. Rebecca (Forbes) Ager married a man named Tipton, probably in Van Buren County, Iowa. His christian name is written Rhoads which I also find written Rhodes by some of his descendants. James A. Ager called him Moses ?? Tipton, but this is probably an error or lapse of memory.

The name of John Moore of New Hagerstown, Ohio, has already been seen in connection with the shipwreck of the "Lord Nelson," and I wish to observe that he was not related to the Thomas Moore who married Rebecca Forbes as far as known.

Rebecca (Forbes) Moore Tipton was a pioneer settler of Iowa and Kansas. The date of her settlement in Kansas is stated to have been 1852 1853/54 (letter of Ann Ager, January __, 1895), but her son James A. Ager puts it in 1856 (see his letter of _____ to the writer). Both statements are probably from memory only, but maybe accepted as approximately correct. The following account of their removal to and early life in Kansas is based upon the narrative of James A. Ager. nephew of, an d s/o ANN Forbes w/o Dr John Forbes ?

He says that his Aunt Rebecca moved to Kansas in 1856, after her second marriage, to Moses Tipton, that he had two sons who with his auntÕs three younger children went out there by ox teams and horses. They drove cattle through, stopped at Indian Mission, a reservation for the Shawnee Indians, where there were schools and churches, eighteen miles from the place then known as Westport Landing on the Missouri River now Kansas City, Mo. They remained at the Mission several months where the children attended the schools with the Indian children. Tipton and family and a lot of stock he had got through trading with the Indians, went to a claim in Linn County twelve miles west of the Missouri line. Sometime in the fall of 1858 the able Indians went up the Kaw River hunting winter meat, antelope and deer in plenty. After they were away Ellen slipped away with her two ponies and rode for the Missouri River miles away. Crossing the line she kept on the Missouri side for nearly four days and at the end of the ninth day found her mother Rebecca and sister Maggie Margaret and brother Alexander. They kept her trail for a long time but no Indians followed.

In 1859, Mr. Ager says, his Aunt Rebecca came to Iowa and sold the Tom Moore homestead of 80 acres, located within one-half mile of a school, his mother Ann Forbes Moore buying 20 acres of the land, and his Uncle Robert Forbes (half-brother of Rebecca) for $10.00 an acre. Thomas Moore had built a good house on this farm and when Rebecca moved to Kansas she left her son John Moore on the place. After Rebecca had left it the house burned down.

John Moore, son of Rebecca, just mentioned, had moved to Kansas, and had been there just a few days when Ellen came home. Ellen married Bob Mitchell, with red hair and beard in 1852. They fitted out a team, came to Iowa and stayed a year. She was afraid of the Shawnees, never spoke of them as Indians.

Mr. Ager was in Coffey County in 1900, called at the old Moore home where his cousin John Moore had died in the 1890s, and saw Thomas MooreÕs wife who pointed out the Alexander Moore claim. Alexander Moore had a claim on land, but was killed in the Civil War. See his name. His mother completed this claim.

Mr. Tipton was killed in 1864 in what was known as the Price Raid. General Price, with a division of Confederate troop undertook to enter upon Kansas soil. The governor of Kansas getting word of his movements ordered out all the militia. Federal troops were also sent. The first stand was made at Independence, Missouri, the Missouri River, whence the Confederates fled to Lone Jack, a small town on Blue Creek. From this place the main body of PriceÕs army retreated towards Kansas. After a few hours the Federal troops turned west after the main army followed Blue Creek Valley, fighting again at Blue Church. Price got over into Kansas and meeting General PleasantsÕ federal troops and Kansas militia was driven back into Missouri and followed to the Arkansas state line. There was a hot battle at Mound City also one further north where the town of Pleasanton in Linn county named after General Pleasants is now located. Mr. Tipton, it appears, was not an enlisted man in either State militia or the Federal forces but was in the fighting voluntarily or as an independent. He was buried where he fell at the head-waters of Blue Creek, Missouri, a few miles south of Wyandotte. Wyandotte was one of the municipalities that merged to form the present city of Kansas City, Kansas.

Mrs. Rebecca (Forbes) Moore Tipton died in Linn County, Kansas, November 18, 1896.

Thomas Moore and Rebecca Forbes had five children born in Ohio. I have no specific dates of any of them. They were:

* (1) Mary Ann Moore, married John Shaffer.
* (2) John Moore, married Sarah Orr.
* (3) Ellen Moore, married (1) Robert Mitchell and (2) a Mr. Vaughan.
* (4) Alexander Moore.
* (5) Margaret Moore. Of all these children

(1) Mary Ann Moore married John Shaffer. James A. Ager says that the family moved ton Oregon soon after the Civil War. Her nephew John J. Mitchell gives a list of her children as follows: Rebecca, Thomas, James, Sirenis, Ellen, Ulysses and George Shaffer. He stated that Rebecca Shaffer married one David Phillips and lived at one time at Cabool, Missouri. An inquiry of the Cabool post office brought the reply that these people were unknown to them. No other data of this family.

(2) John Moore, son of Rebecca (Forbes) Moore, married Sarah Orr, probably in Van Buren county, Iowa, about 1856. He moved to Kansas about 1858, and was with the Kansas Militia in the Civil War and with his regiment joined forces with the Federal troops under General Pleasanton in driving

General Price and Confederate troops off the soil of Kansas.

John Moore has been described a short man with long body and short legs, large red beard, and red hair. He was a very successful farmer in Coffey county, Kansas, and was considered wealthy. He died suddenly of heart disease about 1898-9. I am unable to give any details of his family except that he had a son Thomas A. Moore, and one daughter, name not stated, both residents of Gridley, Kansas, and one daughter, Mrs. Ella Pennock, living at Burlington, Kansas.

(3) Ellen Moore, daughter of Thomas Moore and Rebecca Forbes, was born at _____, married Robert Mitchell, date not stated. He was born in (County) Armagh, Ireland in 1832, and died in Coffey County, Kansas, in April, 1874. They had four children, all born in Coffey or Linn county, Kansas. (See the letter of John J. Mitchell of April 19, 1931).

Children of Ellen Moore and Robert Mitchell:

(i) Thomas Oscar Mitchell was born June 6, 1864, married Augusta Hepner in 1897. They live at Burlington, Coffey county, Kansas, and their children are (a) Earl; (b) Pearl; (c) Jesse; (d) Christ (Christopher, Christian); (e) Mabel; (f) Leonard; (g) Flossie and (h) Ivan Mitchell.

(ii) John James Mitchell was born in Coffey county, Kansas, September 1, 1866. He has never married.

(iii) Robert Freeman Mitchell was born in Linn or Coffey Co., Kansas, May 15, 1870, married Callie Sanders at Burlington, Kansas. Their children are (a) Ethel; (b) Ernest; (c) Grace; (d) Golda; (e) Mabel; (f) Nina; (g) Robert and (h) Opal Mitchell.

They live at Long Beach, California.

(iv) Martha Ellen Mitchell, born in Linn or Coffey County, Kansas, March, 1872, married T. L. Jackson at Gridley, Kansas, in 1890. They live at Fort Morgan, Colorado, and have four children,- (a) Hazel; (b) Ralph; (c) Elva and (d) Ethel Jackson.

Mrs. Ellen (Moore) Mitchell married (2) James R. Vaughan, about 1880, and they had one child:

(v) Kate Elizabeth Vaughan was born at Strawn, Kansas, May 17, 1881, married C. Lingenfelter, February 7, 1900, at Burlington, Kansas. He was born March 9, 1877, at Linia, Ohio. They live at Gridley, Coffey County, Kansas, where they had four children, namely:Ñ

(a) Pearl Lingenfelter, born January 19, 1901, died July 20, 1902.

(b) Ernest Lingenfelter, born September 30, 1903.

(c) Elsie Lingenfelter, born December 11, 1905, married George Sander, December 19, 1923, at Gridley, Kansas. They live at Gridley and have one child, (a) Max Leon Sander.

(d) Ray Lingenfelter, born May 9, 1908.

(4) Alexander Moore, son of Rebecca Moore, never married. He enlisted in Company G of the Fifth Regiment of Kansas Volunteer Cavalry, October 11, 1861, was promoted to Corporal and was killed while on picket duty at Helena, Arkansas, April 3, 1863. The Adjutant General of Kansas reports him as Òkilled in actionÓ. Alexander Moore took up a claim of government land before he enlisted as a soldier. The land is located in Coffey County, Kansas, not far from the town of Gridley. I am informed that after his death his mother Rebecca as next of kin completed the necessary steps to perfect title and was granted a patent for the land. I am not sure whether Alexander Moore or his sister Ellen was the elder.

(5) Margaret Moore, daughter of Thomas and Rebecca (Forbes) Moore, was born in Ohio, and was three or four years old when the family moved to Iowa. James A. Ager, her cousin, is my authority that she moved to Kansas with her mother and died ther in 1857 or 1858, aged 17 years. He also says that she was married, but did not remember any names.

Three Children of Rhoads (or Rhodes) Tipton and Rebecca Forbes Moore Tipton:

(1) Emma Tipton, daughter of Rhoads (or Rhodes) Tipton and Rebecca Forbes, was born at LaCygne, Kansas, July 6, 1854, and was married at LaCygne in October 1870, to Freeman Gillet, who was born February 11, 1848 in Delaware Co., Ohio. They had severn children doubtless all in Coffey County, Kansas, though their birthplaces are not given in all instances, Of their children—

(i) Wilson Gillet was born October 29, 1872 at LaCygne, Kansas, married Maggie Manon at Burlington, Kansas. They live at Gridley, Kansas, and have four children,- (a) Frances; (b) Chloe; (c) Louis and (d) Gilbert Gillet.

(ii) Edward Gillet was born August, 1874, at Burlington, Kansas, unmarried, and lives at Burlington, Kansas.

(iii) Woods Gillet was born November, 1876, at Burlington, Kansas, married Fannie Bender at Burlington, Kansas.

(iv) Frank Gillet, born October, 1878, died at Burlington, Kansas, date not stated.

(v) Mable S. Gillet married Clyde McEnterfer at Burlington, Kansas. Their children are, (a) Hazel Tersel; (b) Bernice Staford; (c) Vera Kious, and Juanita McEnterfer. The second names of the three daughters first named, are probably their married names, but nothing is mentioned of their marriages. Mrs Mable McEnterfer lives at Emporia, Kansas.

(vi) John F. Gillet was born May 23, 1887, at Burlington, Kansas, married Myrtle Niver at Burlington, Kansas. He lives at Burlington, Kansas, and they have one child, (a) Melvin Gillet.

(vii) Ella Gillet was born February 22, 1891 at Burlington, Kansas, and died there in January, 1921. She married Chan Swibold in March, 1909, at Burlington, Kansas, and left one child, (a) Thelma Swibold.

(2) Sarah Katherine Tipton, daughter of Rhoads Tipton and Rebecca Forbes, was born at Kansas City, Mo., one account says at Lawrence, Kansas, on April 15, 1856, died at Anthony, Kansas, April 13, 1919. She married William Harding at LaCygne, Kansas, date not stated, but probably 1875-6. They had two children at LaCygne, Kansas, Jesse Rhodes Harding and Clyde James Harding.

(i) Jesse Rhodes Harding was born March 5, 1877, married Elma McCollam, at Bash City, Kansas, March 25, 1903. They had _____ children: (a) Wanda Rachel Harding, born April 15, 1904, married Henry Paul Wemken, June 18, 1923. They have two children, (1st) Alvin Paul Wemken, born July 5, 1924, and (2d) Marvin Arnold Wemken, born November 9, 1928, and they live at 7835 Forest Drive Preserve, Chicago, Illinois.

(ii) Clyde Rhodes Harding was born July 6, 1907, married February 29, 1929, name of wife not given. They live at Ventura California.

(iii) Roland, Jesse Harding was born September 26, 1912, was unmarried and lived at Ventura, California.

(iv) Thelma Marca Harding, born December 1, 1913.

(v) Wayne William Harding, born July 29, 1916.

(i) Jesse Rhodes Harding lives at Anthony, Kansas. His middle name is obviously for his Grandfather Tipton which I find written Rhoads and Rhodes.

(ii) Clyde James Harding, son of William Harding and SarahTipton, was born August 16, 1881, married Lena W. McCollam, October 7, 1903, at Kincaid, Kansas. They had one child, (a) Clyde James Harding, Jr., born June 28, 1910, died April 1, 1919. Clyde James Harding lives at Manchester, Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harding separated when their children were quite small, and he has not been known to his family.

(3) Edward Tipton, son of Rhoads Tipton and Rebecca Forbes, was born in Linn County, Kansas, April 4, 1860, died at Gridley, Kansas, November 23, 1929. He married Jennie Combs, July 2, 1885, at Gridley, Kansas. She was born June 28, 1864 in Oregon. They had seven children. Of all their children,Ñ

(i) Emma Tipton, born August 4, 1886, at Gridley, Kansas, died at Farlinsville, Linn Co., Kansas, November 17, 1905, married July 2, 1903 at Burlington, Kansas, Christopher Fahrny. They had one child , (a) Emma Elizabeth Fahrny, died in infancy.

(ii) Jacob Tipton, born at Gridley, Kansas, June 13, 1888, unmarried and lives at Gridley, Kansas. Ground keeper at golf course - Simpson; d. 1887, 100

(iii) Elizabeth Tipton, born at Gridley, Kansas, February 14, 1890, married Fred Ackerman, April 21, 1911, in Oklahoma. They have two children, (a) Walter Ackerman and (b) Gerald Ackerman, and live at Ottawa, Kansas.

(iv) Nelson Tipton, born February 23, 1892, at Gridley, Kansas, married Montra Jackson, August 25, 1920, at Burlington, Kansas. They have two children, (a) Nelson Tipton and (b) Jackie Tipton, and live at Kembro, Kansas.

(v) Walter Tipton, born December 30, 1894 at Gridley, Kansas, married Gladys McCormick, August 27, 1913, at Ottawa, Kansas. They have three children, - (a) Genevieve, (b) Lawrence and (c) Francis Tipton, and live at Gridley, Kansas.

(vi) Ruth Tipton was born at Mound City, Kansas, February 6, year not stated, but obviously about 1896. She married Joe Birk at Burlington, Kansas, in 1913, and they had four children, (a) Harold, (b) Wanda, (c) Rex, (d) Edward, (e) Dorothy and (f)
Paul Birk. They live at Burlington, Kansas.

(vii) Carrie Tipton was born at Gridley, Kansas, March 2, 1899, married December 23, 1920, Perry Madison Johnson, at Burlington, Kansas. They have five children, (a) Perry Madison, Jr., (b) Francis, (c) Darline, (d) Kenneth, and (e) Leonard
Johnson. They live at Gridley, Kansas.

Rebecca's bro 2

JOHN FORBIS, SON OF JOHN AND MARY (AGER) FORBES (OR FORBIS) AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

(C) John, son of John and Mary (Ager) Forbes always spelled his name Forbis and the family name was always pronounced in two syllables, whether written Forbes or Forbis. In this sketch his own manner of writing his name will be followed.

John Forbis married Jane Goff, August 13, 1861, probably in Van Buren County, Iowa. About the close of the Civil War they moved to Linn County, Kansas, where his sister Rebecca was among the earliest settlers.

John Forbis and Jane Goff had the following named children:

* (1) Mary Belle Forbis, born July 16, 1862, in Van Buren Co. Iowa.

(2) Josephine R. Forbis, born November 7, 1864, in Van Buren Co., Iowa, died August 27, 1867 in Linn Co., Kansas.

* (3) John Alexander Forbis, born November 3, 1866 in Linn Co., Kansas.

(4) Martha Ellen Forbis, born July 18, 1869 in Linn Co., Kansas, died August 2, 1869.

(1) Mary Belle Forbis, oldest daughter of John Forbes, born July 16, 1862, was married March 16, 1879, in Linn Co., Kansas to John Robert Gaines, who was born at Nashville, Tennessee, December 15, 1847, and died at Chandler, Oklahoma, March 28, 1918. They had five children born at LaCygne, Linn County, Kansas.
